Reviews and Ratings

Over the years, Naxos recordings have received outstanding critical acclaim in virtually every specialized and general-interest publication around the world. In this catalogue we are only listing ratings which summarize a more detailed review in a single number or a single rating. Our recordings receive favourable reviews in many other publications which, however, do not use a simple, easy to understand rating system.

Penguin Guide: More than half of all current Naxos recordings are included in various editions of the authoritative Penguin Guide. The very highest rating is  with a  awarded only to recordings of exceptional quality. Otherwise, the  rating is the highest awarded to other recordings ... it means that a recording features an outstanding performance and has equally outstanding sound. Brackets around one star signify a slight reservation regarding either sound or performance. In this catalogue we only list the   and  recordings although many more of our recordings also received  ratings, indicating a good performance and recording of today's normal high standard.

-   A recording in a very special class
-   An outstanding performance and recording in every way

Gramophone: This is the oldest monthly British magazine devoted to recorded music. It does not have a rating system and we can therefore only indicate which of our Naxos recordings were included in the monthly Editor's Choice category and which were pronounced Disc of the Month.

-  Gramophone Awards 2001
-  Gramophone editor's choice
-  Gramophone disc of the month
-  Gramophone Award Nomination

BBC Music Magazine: Unlike Gramophone, the BBC Music Magazine is not primarily a publication devoted to recorded music but to music in general (as its title indicates). Nevertheless, the publication has been increasing its coverage of classical and other recordings and must now be considered a serious rival to Gramophone. The highest rating given to a recording is  outstanding.

-  BBC 5-Star rating
-  BBC editor's choice
-  BBC outstanding quality

 Cannes Classical Award

 Pizzicato: Supersonic Rating

 Klassik heute: Performance 10

Classic CD: This publication had taken a more popular approach to classical music and had a circulation comparable to that of Gramophone. The highest rating accorded by Classic CD to a recording was ★★★★★ (Performance and/or Sound).

-  Classic CD 5-Star Rating
-  Classic CD disc of the month

Diapason: This is the French equivalent of Gramophone but extensively covers live in addition to recorded music. It accords recordings ratings from one to five tuning forks (diapasons). A select few recordings are awarded a Diapason d'Or.

-  Diapason d'Or
-  Five-Diapason Rating

Répertoire: This is a record collectors' publication rating recordings on a scale of 1 to 10.

-  Répertoire 10 Rating
-  Répertoire 9 Rating
-  Répertoire Recommended
-  Répertoire Historical CD of the Month
-  Répertoire CD of the Month

Le Monde de la Musique: This is the third of the French magazines. It rates recordings according to a star system, four stars being the highest rating. A few select recordings are awarded the CHOC symbol.

-  Special Award of Le Monde de la Musique
-  Highest 4-Star Rating of Le Monde de la Musique

 Classica: Recommended by Classica

-  Stereoplay: 9 Rating
-  Stereoplay: 9.5 Rating
-  Stereoplay: Disc of the Month

 ClassicsToday: This is the only website reviewing all new classical releases on a daily basis.

Its highest rating is 10/10, the first 10 referring to the performance and the second 10 to the sound quality.

 The Absolute Sound: Super CD

Foreword by Klaus Heymann

When I started the Naxos label fifteen years ago I had no great ambitions other than making classical recordings available on CD at a price comparable to that of LPs. Not in my wildest dreams did I expect my humble creation to become the world's leading classical label 15 years later, leading at least in terms of genuine new releases and of available, unduplicated repertoire. In addition, in many countries, including such important classical markets as the UK, Naxos is also now the best-selling classical label in terms of the number of CDs sold.

Naxos is also now the leading repertoire provider in the world. Our catalogue now (as of July 2002) comprises more than 2300 releases and we expect to add about ten to fifteen new releases every month so that, by the end of the year 2003, our catalogue will list almost 2,500, largely unduplicated recordings, offering music lovers a veritable encyclopedia of classical music.

How did we achieve this unexpected success, unexpected by myself, my colleagues and by our competitors? Our success is mainly due to the fact that Naxos is a label created and developed by music lovers for music lovers. At Naxos, we are serious about our music. We re-invest the slim profits we make at our low price into new repertoire and in developing a growing number of new artists.

But we also invested in a worldwide distribution network with wholly or partly owned distribution companies headed by people who are as passionate about classical music as I have been all my life.

Some of these distribution companies now also distribute today's other leading independent labels such as Hyperion, CPO, BIS, Harmonia Mundi (France), ASV, Haenssler, MDG, Collegium and others, labels also created and developed by people who are serious about classical music.

At the same time, most of our major competitors focus on crossover programmes, theme compilations and a handful of marketable stars. Most no longer undertake long-term recording projects or invest money in developing new, promising artists by assigning important projects to them.

There is now a critical consensus that Naxos recordings are as good as or better than those of many labels selling at a much higher price. That is, of course, not surprising. Naxos works with many of the orchestras also used by other independent record companies, some of the same producers and engineers and with artists of similar or better calibre. Our costs are the same as those of other independent record companies. However, our consumer-friendly price allows us to sell many times more copies of a recording than we could sell at a high price and we can therefore spread our costs across 20,000 to 30,000 copies, where a full-price recording would only sell 3,000 to 5,000 copies.

Naxos also invests heavily in educational projects, thus building future audiences. We not only publish numerous educational leaflets and booklets, from "How to Build a Classical CD Collection" and "How to Enjoy Classical Concerts" to the "A-Z of Classical Music" and the "A-Z of Opera". We are also funding educational projects for children aged 6 to 10 ("Music for Kids") and are supporting Internet-based Music Appreciation and Music History course for college and university students, developed by I-Cubed in the United States. New series include "Lives and Works of the Great Composers", "Classics Explained" and "Opera Explained". A 7-CD set is devoted to the "Instruments of the Orchestra"

We are also investing a great deal of effort and money into our naxos.com website with a highly sophisticated data base, that will allow unprecedented access to information about musical works and enable the visitor to the site to find every single work in our Naxos and Marco Polo catalogues. Subscribers to the site can also listen to every single track (excluding copyrighted material). Our website also offers information about other independent labels, making it a veritable portal for the world of recorded classical music.

Our dedication to classical music has been rewarded with unprecedented acclaim from the media but also, and more importantly, from our customers. Naxos will continue to serve them, making ever more exciting repertoire available at the affordable Naxos price which, incidentally, has remained largely unchanged since we first started in 1987, substantial increases in our costs offset by the decline in the manufacturing cost of CD's.

Keep supporting our efforts by taking a chance on the many new recordings we plan to release over the next few years ... at the Naxos price you're not taking a chance.

Klaus Heymann

■ Lute Songs

Come again: Sweet love doth now invite • Flow my tears • Lady, if you so spite me • In darkness let me dwell • Melancholy Galliard • Say love if ever thou did'st find • His golden locks • Greensleeves Divisions If my complaints could passions move • Time stands still • Can she excuse my wrongs? • Fortune my foe I saw my lady weep • Wilt thou unkind thus reave me? Stay time awhile thy flying • Bonny Sweet Robin Me, me, and none but me • Sorrow, stay • Fine knacks for ladies • Kemp's Jig • Callino • When Phoebus first did Daphne love • Think'st thou then by thy feigning? Galliards by Mary, Queen of Scots • Now, o now I needs must part • Come, heavy sleep
