IL TRITTICO

GIACOMO PUCCINI 1858-1924

'A glorious and rewarding evening ... The Royal Opera and its audiences could scarcely have hoped for a stronger opening to the season,' was Opera magazine's judgement on this production of Puccini's triptych of powerfully contrasted one-act operas. Under the baton of Music Director Antonio Pappano and staged by the ever-inventive Richard Jones, Il tabarro intensely evokes 1930s French cinema. Suor Angelica brings a heart-wrenching central performance from Ermonela Jaho and Gianni Schicchi rounds off events in a suitably riotous fashion.

Sung in Italian with English, French, German, Spanish and Italian subtitles
